The Granby Land Trust and the Granby Artists Association invite you to join us for The BIG PAINT – Plein Air Painting, a Walking Tour and Lunch – on the beautiful Emery Farm Property in North Granby

Sunday, September 18, 2011 • 12 Noon - 3 PM (Artists' Paint-Out begins at 9 AM)
Emery Farm Property, 71 Loomis Street, North Granby, Connecticut

Beginning at 12:00 noon on Sunday, September 18th, the Granby Land Trust and the Granby Artists Association invite you to join us for The BIG PAINT, a very special event featuring artists from the Connecticut Plein Air Painters Society, the Granby Artists Association and renowned artist/educator David Lussier. Held at the beautiful Emery Farm Property on Loomis Street in North Granby, this event will feature a Garden Harvest Picnic Buffet Lunch by Lost Acres Orchard and a walking tour of the property to see artists working plein air under the guidance of David Lussier. Artists will be preparing artwork which may be included in the upcoming art show - Celebrating Art in Nature (Art Show will be from Nov. 3 - Dec. 3 at J. Vallee Brunelle Fine Art & Framing in Granby Center). The Garden Harvest Picnic Buffet Lunch by Lost Acres Orchard is available for pre-ordering - see form below.

The spectacular Emery Farm Property at 71 Loomis Street in North Granby is privately owned by longtime Land Trust supporters Jenny and Dave Emery. Last December, the Emerys - along with Jamie Gamble - generously donated a conservation easement to the Land Trust on property located across the street from the Farm. This area is one of Granby's truly beautiful places.
