About Juror David Lussier

David A. Lussier is a plein air painter whose landscapes of sparkling autumn hillsides, muted spring days of melting snow or fishing boats under a hazy summer sky convey his passion for New England and for fine art. He has dedicated himself not only to his profession, but also to being a steward for the landscape that is his inspiration and to sharing his love for his craft with others. He has won numerous awards and accolades for his work as a fine artist. David was trained as a commercial illustrator, but discovered his passion when he tried painting outdoors. It was then that he came to the full realization that God intended for him to be a landscape painter. Only by painting en plein air can he react to the ever-changing, energy-charged world of nature with a spirit and spontaneity unobtainable in the studio. Lussier is a true believer that less is more in painting and the brushstroke is an artwork's essence.

Granby Land Trust Annual Paint Out and CT Plein Air Painters Society Present, "The Big Paint"

This year, Granby Land Trust is pleased to announce that CT Plein Air Painters Society will join up with us to present an even larger outdoor painting demonstration, gathering some of the best plein air painters in the state to Emery Farm in North Granby. Our juror, highly regarded plein air painter David Lussier, will also be at the farm; behind a canvas, and also offering advice and encouragement to the other painters.

Sunday, September 18, from 9:00AM to 3:00PM at Emery Farm, home of Jenny and Dave Emery, 71 Loomis Street, North Granby, CT 06060 (Rain date, Sept 26).

Lunch may be ordered prior to the event, catered by Lost Acres Orchard with sandwiches, salads and lots of fresh local veggies, fruit and cider. For more details on the entire event, and to order lunch, please go to GranbyLandTrust.org or call 860.653.7095.

Attendance at this event is not a requirement for artists entering the juried show, but please join us if you can.
