

From Our Juror,

Will Lustenader

As a professional artist and art historian, I am always honored to be asked to jury a Connecticut exhibition. I started as a landscape painter in my youth, and even though my work has turned to abstraction in recent years, I find great satisfaction in studying the landscape works of my fellow artists, be they professionals or amateurs. In jurying the Granby Land Trust show, I found that this group of artists shows a remarkable range of talent and originality. I was struck by the emotional quality that so many of the pieces exhibited; and I found the selection process to be a difficult one at times. I wish the best to all who seek to embrace the beauty of New England in their work. It was a pleasure to be in their company.

The People's Choice Award, sponsored by Lost Acres Vineyard owners Michelle Niedermeyer and Kevin Riggott, gives you an opportunity to vote for the piece of art that you like best. You can vote once per visit to the show, through the end of the day on November 22, at which time the People's Choice Award winner will be announced. Voting ballots are available at the tasting counter.

The Land Trust thanks all the award underwriters for their generosity and support of the show.
