

From Our Juror,
Paul Gulla

In my twenty-five years as Gallery Manager of R. Michelson Galleries, I have seen a great many works of art and I never fail to feel a thrill when I first glimpse something new. The Connecticut River Valley has a grand artistic tradition and this group certainly lived up to it. Each piece had its own unique character and expressed it so wonderfully. It was such a pleasure to take them in and spend time with them. I strove to choose works on the basis of a combination of emotional impact, skill, nuance, and most of all, a quality of connection with the natural scene it depicts. I am grateful for the opportunity to be a part of this exhibit and grateful to all the artists who put such heart and soul into their art for it.

Thank You

Thank You to the following people and organizations who helped make this show possible:

The Granby Land Trust

The Granby Land Trust works to preserve Granby's natural heritage through the conservation of its scenic vistas, open space corridors, wildlife habitat, ecologically sensitive areas, and agricultural land. Visit GranbyLandTrust.org for information regarding our organization, upcoming events, and how to become a Granby Land Trust member.

The Granby Artists Association

The Granby Artists Association works to create a climate which promotes the visual arts and fine crafts, create professional high quality artistic events, and support art education in the community. Visit GranbyArtists.org.

Paul Gulla – Juror

Paul has been with R. Michelson Galleries, a “destination gallery” in New England, since 1991. In his role as Gallery Manager, he works to build client relationships and establish collector bases for the artists the gallery represents, as well as working with museums, conservators, and artists to cultivate a positive environment for the creation, display, protection, and sale of works of art. He also is a USPAP certified art appraiser and owner of Paul Gulla Fine Art LLC. His career began working in his father's picture frame shop as a teenager. He holds a BA and an MBA from the University of Massachusetts.

The People's Choice Award, sponsored by Lost Acres Vineyard owners Michelle Niedermeyer and Kevin Riggott, gives you an opportunity to vote for the piece of art that you like best. You can vote once per visit to the show, through the end of the day on November 22, at which time the People's Choice Award winner will be announced. Voting ballots are available at the tasting counter.

The Land Trust thanks all the award underwriters for their generosity and support of the show.
