

From Our Juror,

Carli Freeman

Having grown up in the Farmington Valley, it was an honor to be asked to jury this show. This part of Connecticut is just beautiful and its agricultural places are an important part of the community both from a visual and historic perspective. With so many good pieces of work, it was a challenge to jury, but I asked myself: "What pieces best represent and capture the Farmington Valley's natural aesthetic?" It is my hope that the works I chose for this show best depict the region's beauty and all it has to offer and I commend all the artists who chose to submit their work.
