

From Our Juror,

Amy Kurtz-Lansing

I am honored to have been invited to jury this year's Granby Land Trust Art Show. The submissions celebrate New England's natural beauty, much of it found in Connecticut. The paintings, drawings, prints, photographs, mixed media, and crafts testify not only to this region's scenic character, but also to the talent of its artists across a range of media. Identifying which works to hang in the available gallery space, and which to award prizes, was not easy due to the quality of the artists' submissions. I am especially delighted to have learned about the Granby Land Trust properties depicted in numerous artworks, places both historical and picturesque that I'll be back to visit! Thank you to all of the artists for acquainting me with your considerable abilities and for capturing the essence of New England for the benefit of an organization dedicated to preserving that heritage.

Our Presenting Supporters

Thank you to Mark and Barb Wetzel, and Ted Cormier, David Paul and Dan Hausmann of ALIRT Insurance Research, LLC for helping to make this show possible.

Thank You

Thank you to the following people and organizations who helped make this show possible:

The Granby Land Trust

The Granby Land Trust works to preserve Granby's natural heritage through the conservation of its scenic vistas, open space corridors, wildlife habitat, ecologically sensitive areas, and agricultural land. Visit GranbyLandTrust.org for information regarding our organization, upcoming events, and how to become a Granby Land Trust member.

The Granby Artists Association

Granby Artists Association is a group joined together in the spirit of mutual respect and support to promote visual arts and fine crafts; to create professional artistic high quality events; and to support art education in the community as a non-profit. Visit GranbyArtists.org.

Amy Kurtz Lansing, Juror

Amy Kurtz Lansing is Curator at the Florence Griswold Museum in Old Lyme, CT. A specialist in nineteenth and twentieth-century art, she has organized or co-organized an array of exhibitions on American paintings, sculpture, and photography, including the upcoming Abandon in Place: The Worlds of Anna Audette (September 30, 2023–January 28, 2024). She has worked with contemporary artists on exhibitions and site-specific commissions, and frequently serves as a juror for Connecticut arts organizations.

Art Show Committee

Laura Eden, Els Fonteyne, Leslie Judge, Michelle Niedermeyer, Rick Orluk, Maggie Percival, Trish Percival, Bill Simpson, and Doug Williams

In addition, the Granby Land Trust thanks everyone who has worked to make this show a success:

Gary Adamson, Rebecca Brewer, Tony Capelli, Tammy Carey, Leslie Crockett, Ed Judge, Rosemarie Mendes, Lisa Molloy, Steve Perry, Kevin Riggott, Dave Russell, Don Shaw, Jr., and Lynette Simpson
